Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] <ol style="list-style-type: none"> which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or <ol style="list-style-type: none"> to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

The activities of the World Day of Prayer in Scotland are directed by the Scottish Committee as governed by its Constitution.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The recommended size of the Committee is 25 members elected by different Christian denominations, representatives of various organisations or interdenominational societies and co-opted members. Committee members usually serve three to five years up to a maximum of 15 years.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

Observing the World Day of Prayer each year, the committee aims to encourage the people of Scotland to participate in the World Day of Prayer and to assist financially in the issue of Scripture and various forms of Christian literature designed to advance the Christian faith and way of life throughout the world.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

On Friday 3rd March 2023, The World Day of Prayer was celebrated by people gathering throughout Scotland in churches, eventide homes, hospices, schools, and other venues. Individuals also participated in their own homes using printed or pre-recorded material. The theme was 'I Have Heard About Your Faith, prepared by Christian women of Taiwan.

Through World Day of Prayer, people are encouraged.

- To become aware of the whole world and no longer to live in isolation.
- To be enriched by the faith experience of Christians of other countries and cultures.
- To take up the burdens of other people and pray with and for them
- To become aware of their talents and use them in the service of society

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

During the year under review, a grant of £10,000 was given to the Scottish Bible Society, £10,000 to Taiwan Charities, £5,000 to Feed the Minds, £1,000 to the International Committee and £600 to the European Committee. In recent years donations have been made to help those affected by HIV, AIDS or human trafficking. Grants are agreed and made by the committee on an annual basis.

During 2023 donations have continued to the World Day of Prayer. Due to cancellation of the International Meeting due to Covid still endemic around the world, the meeting took place on a virtual platform. The Scottish Committee decided to grant £10,000 towards the costs to hold this event. The World Day of Prayer Scottish Committee fortunate that people are still forwarding by post, online or Paypal donation button, offerings to enable the Committee to continue their work.

Committee meetings are now held on Zoom in the winter and in person from April. We have also been very fortunate in meeting on Zoom for various 'Global Conversations' with committee members around the world. In October the Committee were able to meet at Schoenstatt for a retreat.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

It is the policy of the Committee to maintain unrestricted funds, which are the free reserves of the Committee at a level which is equivalent to between one and two times the costs of support, management and administration, this is approximately £15,000. The Committee consider that this level is appropriate to ensure the ongoing work of World Day of Prayer.

Details of any deficit

Donated facilities and services (if any)

APPENDIX 1

Other optional information

The World Day of Prayer Scottish Committee is part of the worldwide movement, which operates through National Committees in participating countries, regional gatherings and the International Committee whose Executive fulfils its responsibilities between quadrennial meetings. The Scottish Committee continues its tradition of active support of the wider movement including sending representatives to International and European meetings. There is also good liaison with World Day of Prayer National committee of England, Wales and Northern Ireland and World Day of Prayer International Committee.

The Committee is greatly indebted to the many volunteers up and down the country who help to organise and take part in services. Their contribution cannot be measured.
