

World Day of Prayer

(Scottish Committee)

Informed Prayer; Prayerful Action

“I Will Give You Rest: Come”

Matthew 11:28-30

Prepared by WDP Scotland

March 6, 2026

Youth Resources

Use this pack to engage teenagers aged 12+ in meaningful reflection on faith, social justice, and community. It can be used as a full programme or individual exercises used as suits your circumstances

FACILITATOR'S GUIDE

Preparation:

- Print quiz sheets.
- Have art materials, candles/stones, and optional digital tools ready.
- Familiarise yourself with the background of World Day of Prayer.

SESSION TIPS:

- Encourage open conversation and listening without judgement.
- Adapt language where necessary based on group needs.
- Use the stories of Beatrice, Jato, and Blessing to ground abstract ideas in reality.

SUGGESTED SCHEDULE:

- Welcome and Introductions (10 mins)
- Reflect & Respond Scripture (15 mins)
- Real Stories & Discussion (20 mins)
- Worship/Prayer Activity (15 mins)
- Creative Visual Expression (20 mins)
- Quiz + Group Review (15 mins)
- Optional Action Challenge or Follow-Up Reflection

Outcomes:

- Increased empathy for global issues.
- Deeper understanding of Jesus' invitation to rest.
- Practical connection between faith and justice.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION - REFLECT & RESPOND: JESUS' INVITATION

Read Matthew 11:28–30.

'Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest...'

Reflect:

- What burdens do young people carry today?
- Where or how do you find rest when things feel overwhelming?
- What might it look like to 'take on Jesus' yoke' in your life?

Activity:

Write or draw a response in a journal or group art wall under these headings:

- What I carry
- Where I rest
- What I hope for others

Real Stories, Real People

Explore the stories of Beatrice, Jato, and Blessing.(see order of service)

Discussion Prompts:

- What stood out to you in these women's stories?
- Have you ever seen someone in your community carry a 'burden' like theirs?
- What role does faith, friendship, or community play in helping someone carry on?

CRITICAL THINKING & COMPASSION

Activity: Debate or small group discussion

Topic ideas: 'Is the world fair?' or 'What does it mean to bear each other's burdens today?'

Challenge Task:

Imagine you could write a letter to one of the women. What would you say? What would you want to learn from her?

WORSHIP & PRAYER TIME

Suggested Songs:

- 'Come Unto Me' (WDP 2026 Theme Song)
- 'Brother, Sister, Let Me Serve You'
- Youth worship tracks about peace and burden-bearing

Group Prayer:

Use candles or stones. Each teen places one down saying:
'This is my burden...'

Then picks up a paper heart with a message of hope such as:
'You are not alone,' 'Peace is possible,' 'Jesus gives rest'

VISUAL CULTURE PROJECT

Create a poster, Tik Tok, or digital storyboard with the phrase:

'Where do I find rest?'

Use art, movement, photography, or music clips to express your ideas.

OPTIONAL GROUP CHALLENGE IDEAS

- Host a sleep-in to raise awareness of youth housing insecurity.
- Create a 'Rest Room' in your youth group space with calming playlists and affirmations.
- Connect with a charity that supports education for girls globally.
